

2006 WORDCRAFT CONVENTION

From Friday 06 October to Monday 09 October 2006 (three nights departing after the night of 08 October) at the Thistle Hotel, Hagley Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham England UK.

This will be the first time that so many Wordcrafters will be together in one place to talk about words and the other fine things of life, such as good food and drink. Don't miss out on what promises to be a unique occasion.

Accommodation

I have managed to secure very attractive rates at this centrally-situated hotel, full details of which can be found here www.thistlehotels.com/birminghamedgbaston. Wordcrafters will pay just £69.00 per a single room or £79.00 per night for a double or twin, both rates including English breakfast, which is about 50% of the normal rate for this hotel.

Wordcrafters wishing to stay longer should be able to extend their stay – just ask me.

Trips and excursions

We are planning a number of interesting trips around this fascinating part of England – birthplace of the Industrial Revolution – and potential ideas are for a visit to a local brewery, Warwick Castle and the Oxford University Press. Obviously all these excursions are subject to what Wordcrafters want – nothing is yet decided. However, please let me know whether these ideas appeal and, if you have any ideas of your own, please make a note below:

Travel

I am not offering to arrange travel, as this will probably be more economical for people to arrange locally, bearing in mind that we are coming from all over the world. However, I shall be pleased to advise if necessary.
